

COMPUTER SCIENCE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEEK

June 4th

Exhibitor Information

2019 Overview

This year's Professional Development Week will be held at The University of New Mexico's School of Engineering. During the week June 3-7, there is a one day opportunity for vendors to interact and network with both teachers and administrators.

Details

Each Registration Includes:

- One Table & Two Chairs
- Open Lunch
- WiFi and Electricity

Schedule

Tuesday, June 4th

Set up exhibits - - - - - 10:00 - 11:30

Lunch - - - - - 12:00 - 1:00

Administrator meeting 2:00 - 4:00

Teacher meeting - - - 4:00- 6:00

Who You Will Meet

Teachers

- There will be roughly 200 teachers attending this event
- We want you to have the opportunity to engage with the front line to gain a better understanding of their needs

Administrators

- There will be roughly 50 administrators attending this event
- Not only do we want you to engage with teachers, we want you to speak with the administrators who can inflict wide spread effects on computer science education

Registration

Early Registration:

Jan 1 - April 1 Cost $200

General Registration:

April 2 - May 20 Cost $250

2018 Demographics

- Elementary - - - - - 16%
- Middle School - - - - 46%
- High School - - - - - 32%
- Higher Ed - - - - - 6%

Questions

Registration - Erik@ComputerScienceAlliance.org

Payment - Erik@ComputerScienceAlliance.org

Information - Info@ComputerScienceAlliance.org

